Canvas Homepage Graphics

The image shows a screenshot of a Canvas LMS course homepage. On the left is a vertical navigation menu with icons for Canvas, Account, Dashboard, Courses, Groups, Calendar, Inbox, Commons, and Help. The main content area is titled "Introduction to Urban Studies" and includes a header with the course name and instructor "Dr. Gregory Anderson". Below the header is a large banner image of a city skyline with a tall skyscraper. The banner contains the text "Introduction to Urban Studies" and "Dr. Gregory Anderson". Below the banner are two green call-to-action boxes: "Questions about grades, accommodations, or other private inquiries? EMAIL HERE" and "Having trouble streaming the video/audio or accessing activities? TECH CHAT HERE". At the bottom, there is a paragraph of text describing the course and the Liberal Arts development studio logo.

Imagine studying the anatomy of an organism so large that it holds a million people. As an Urban Studies major, the Austin metropolitan area is not only your home, it is a living specimen that you can examine at any hour of the day or night, using methods recognized by professionals in urban planning and design, real-estate development, and the non-profit sector, as well as by scholars in urban history, urban anthropology, urban sociology, and other related fields.
